

Defusing of an aerial bomb in Rastatt on Sunday, 26 October, construction site Kombibad/Jahnallee

Evacuation: Please leave the house by 8:30 a.m. at the latest

On Sunday, October 26, an aerial bomb will be defused on the grounds of the combined swimming pool construction site on Jahnallee. Since you live 500 meters from the site, please take note of the following information:

By what time must the evacuation zone be left?

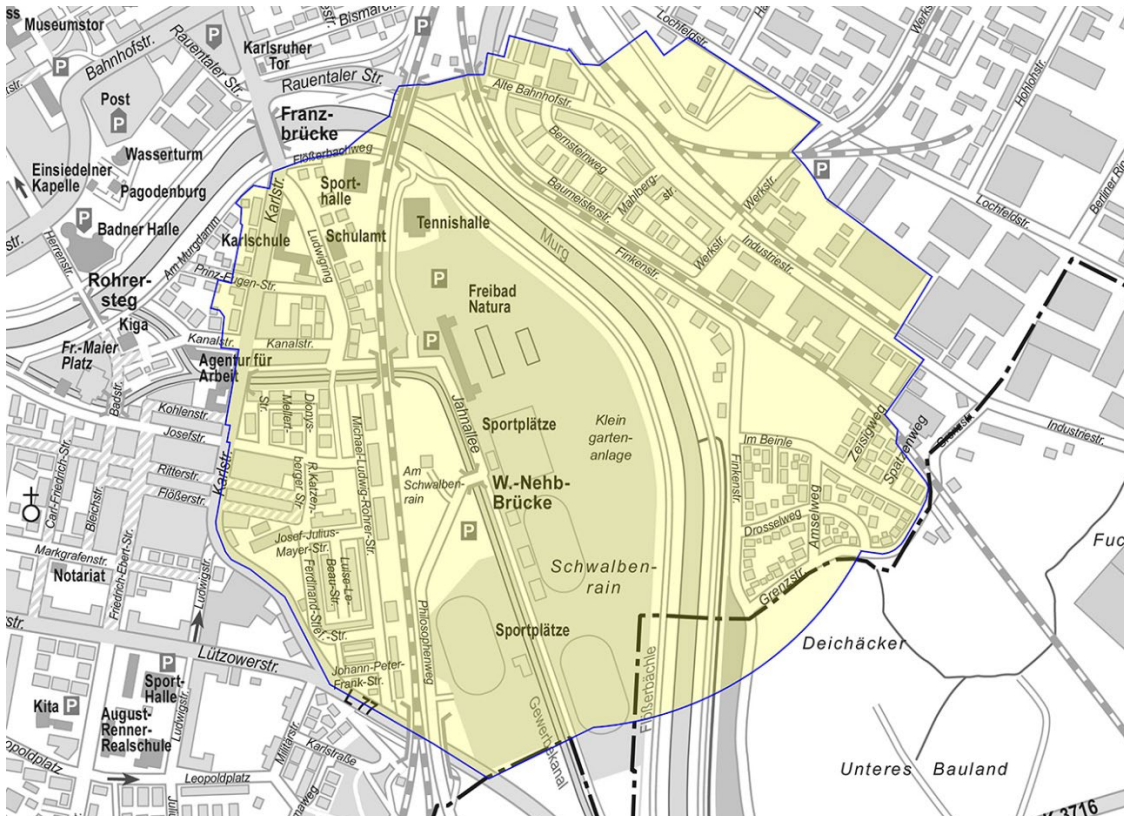

You must leave the evacuation zone by 8:30 a.m. Please note the time change. On Saturday night, the clocks will go back from 3 a.m. to 2 a.m., and standard time will begin.

The police and fire department will check that no one is left in the affected area. Loudspeaker announcements will begin at 8 a.m. The bomb is expected to be defused this morning/at lunchtime.

How far from the bomb will the evacuation take place?

The evacuation radius is at least 500 meters. The affected streets can be found in the appendix.

Where can you go during the defusing?

You can visit friends or family who live elsewhere or take a trip. Alternatively, you can come to the BadnerHalle, located at Kapellenstrasse 20 to 22 in Rastatt. Pets can be kept on a leash or in a carrier.

Who can you contact if you have questions during the week and on the day of the bomb disposal?

On the day of the bomb disposal, you can contact the information desk set up in the BadnerHalle specifically for all affected residents. A hotline will also be available starting Tuesday, October 21, at 07222 972-7222. It is available daily from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. On Sunday, October 26, the hotline will be open until after the bomb disposal. Please notify us in advance, and no later than Thursday, October 23, if you need assistance with stretcher transport. Residents who require medication, oxygen, or isolation measures are asked to state their needs in advance.

When can you return?

You must leave the area during the evacuation. You may not return until the city has completed the evacuation! We will announce the end of the evacuation via our website www.rastatt.de, Facebook and Instagram, and the press. Or via the NINA warning app, which you can install on your smartphone beforehand.

Where can you get current information, or how does the city provide updates on the current status of the bomb disposal operation?

The city of Rastatt provides information on-site at the BadnerHalle, via the city's website: www.rastatt.de, on Facebook and Instagram, and through the press.

Note:

The city of Rastatt has issued evacuation orders and a ban on entering the area. Everyone must adhere to these regulations! The regulations and all further information on the bomb disposal can be found at <https://www.rastatt.de/bombenfund-kombibadbaustelle-rastatt> Information in other languages is available here::
